

Lenovo D32-45 Monitor

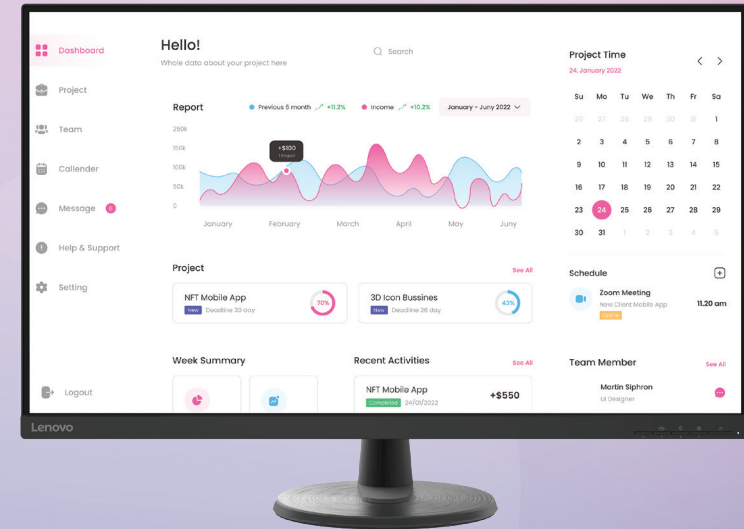

Perfect for work and play.

Meet the efficient multi-tasker.

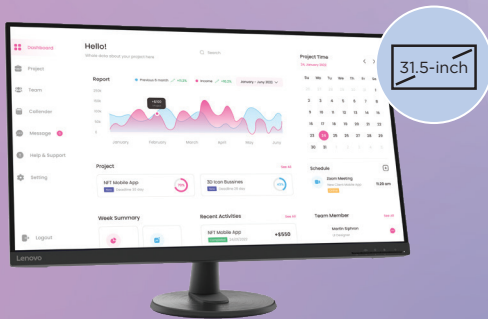

The Lenovo D32-45 Monitor can be the next upgrade to your home office that also offers a pleasing multimedia viewing experience. Its 31.5-inch 3-side NearEdgeless screen with Full-HD (1920 x 1080) resolution packs a good amount of detail, for strain-free viewing whether you're juggling between work documents, multiple tabs, or streaming your favorite movies. Being a VA panel, it produces deep blacks with a 99% sRGB wide color gamut and the visuals that you get are rich in color, offering an enhanced viewing experience. The monitor's TÜV Rheinland Eye Comfort-certified technology cuts out harmful blue light to reduce visual fatigue while TÜV Flicker Free-certified technology prevents tears and flickers so your eyes don't feel the strain over long hours of work. The anti-glare coating on the screen means visibility won't be an issue even in a brightly lit room. The monitor comes with HDMI 1.4, DP 1.2, and an audio out port so that you can connect it to computing and audio devices of your choice. The monitor's tilt functionality allows you to adjust it for your viewing comfort. The VESA mount option gives you the flexibility to wall-mount the monitor so you can sit back and enjoy a more comfortable viewing experience and a cleaner desk. To top it all off, the cable management system offers a clutter-free setup, making Lenovo D32-45 the best budget-friendly monitor option for your home.

Features of Lenovo D32-45 Monitor

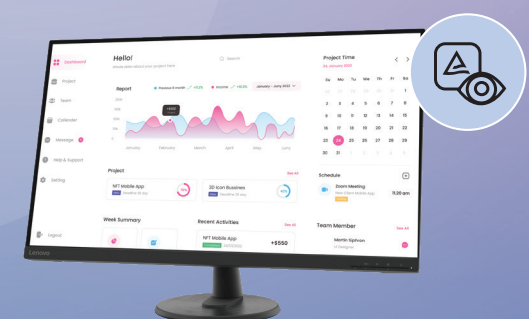

Crisp clarity

The Lenovo D32-45 Monitor's 31.5-inch screen is big enough to be your TV while still being small enough to be your work monitor. Its Full-HD (1920 x 1080) resolution and 99% wide color gamut come together to render images that boast clear details and excellent color saturation. Whether it's office work or multimedia consumption, Lenovo D32-45 Monitor is built to do both perfectly well.

Easy setup options

The Lenovo D32-45 Monitor's connectivity options include HDMI 1.4, DP 1.2, and a 3.5 mm audio out port to easily connect external devices. The monitor's tilt option allows you to adjust the screen to suit your sitting posture. A 100 x 100 VESA Mount allows you to enjoy the monitor's crisp visuals without losing any of your desk space!

Comfortable viewing

The Lenovo D32-45 Monitor prevents eye strain during long hours of screen time with its built-in TÜV Rheinland Eye Comfort-certified technology that eliminates harmful blue light and TÜV Flicker Free-certified technology that prevents tears and stutters. The low 4ms response time allows you to enjoy casual gaming without any perceptible input lag.
